

Application for the issue of a library user card

The present form serves exclusively to record personal data for storage in the library's computer system. We require these data if you wish to loan literature. The processing of these data is based on your consent according to Art. 6 (1) (a) General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Consent can be revoked at any time with effect for the future. The lawfulness of the processing until revocation remains unaffected. The data will not be disclosed to any third parties.

After entering your data into our computer system, you can have your user card issued at the Service Point on presentation of your identity card or passport. Language students please present a certificate of registration and admission to the language course. We charge private individuals (with the exception of pupils of the Robert-Koch-Schule Clausthal-Zellerfeld and language students) a fee of 5.00 € for the first-time issue of a user card (Nds. GVBL p. 455 on 16th November 2004).
